ETHNIC STUDIES MINOR

Department website (https://www.uwp.edu/learn/programs/ethnicstudies.cfm)

College: College of Arts & Humanities

The ethnic studies minor may be combined with any major. It consists of 18 credits, 9 in the core courses, and 9 in the electives.

1. Ethnic studies encourages you to hold a mirror and reflect on your history which is typically absent in academe. You will be able to understand historical and cultural issues that are often the basis of human interaction in the public sphere, and in the workplace. Ethnic studies trains you in skills valuable to all professional fields including the ability to think critically and independently, particularly in terms of historical, cultural, and political analysis. an interdisciplinary program that helps you place historically marginalized groups such as American Indians, African Americans, Latinx, and Asian Americans at the center of academic inquiry. The minor in ethnic studies critically examine race, ethnic inequality, and power relations in the United States, including institutional racism and white privilege.
